

American Brachytherapy Society
2012 Breast Brachytherapy School
September 13–14, 2012
Loews Lake Las Vegas | Las Vegas, NV

Co-sponsored by The American Society of Breast Surgeons (ASBS)

Co-Chairs:

Douglas W. Arthur, MD
Frank A. Vicini, MD
David E. Wazer, MD

SAVE THE DATES

- » Expanded program for 2012.
- » Exhibitors present.
- » Internationally known brachytherapy experts.
- » SAMS credits.
- » Networking opportunities.
- » CME, CAMPEP, and MDCB credits for attendees.
- » On-site discounted sale on speaker Powerpoint presentations with corresponding audio.
- » Become a member of the ABS and receive a discounted registration rate.

Prior School Topics Have Included:

- Overview of Partial Breast Irradiation in the Management of Breast Cancer: Concept, Target Definition, Patient Selection
- Physics of Partial Breast Irradiation: Necessary Factors for Success/Technique Comparison
- Surgical Considerations/Patient Discussion Surgical/Radiation Oncology Coordination
- Interstitial Technique: Evolution of Technique and Long Term Data
- Intracavitary Technique: Evolution of Technique and Long Term Outcome
- Phase III Trial Update
- Normal Tissue Toxicity
- Case Presentations and Panel Discussion

Check the ABS website for future updates and a Registration Brochure: www.americanbrachytherapy.org

Questions? Contact the ABS National Office at 703.234.4078, ext. 4085, 4071, or 4070.